

Home
News HUB
Events
Membership
Directory
Information
Home » News HUB » Latest News » SeeByte Adds to Mine Counter Measures Expertise

SeeByte Adds to Mine Counter Measures E

12 April 2011

« Back to Latest News

SeeByte, the global leader in creating smart software technology for ur Cdr Rob Cornick RN (retired) as a newly appointed Senior Programme

Rob joins SeeByte having recently retired from the Royal Navy after 25 post saw Rob act as the Mine Warfare Programme Officer at NATO's U During his time there, Rob provided expertise, leadership and guidance future Mine Countermeasures operating concepts and capabilities. Rot and his own practical experience will be to the benefit of customers of : is the tool of choice for the US Navy and it is used by eleven other nav monitoring and processing data from multiple AUVs, divers and sensor

In this section...

Latest News

News Archives

Newsletters

Newsletter Archives

SeaByte's Rob Cornick as Senior Programme Manager.

"We are delighted to welcome Rob to the team." Commented Bob Blac in Mine Warfare and Clearance Diving equips him with a knowledge-ba and future military requirements, allowing us to continue to provide pra of our clients."

Cornick commented: "Having been familiar with the state-of-the-art soft now, I appreciate the real-world benefits associated with the technolog such a forward-looking company and to work closely with SeeByte's cli

Rob officially begins his role with SeeByte at their head office in Edinbu Business 2011, hosted in Southampton last week may have spotted R SeeByte's key customers and partners.